Tiny old Rings Cemetery is a located just north of the intersection of Hayden Run Road & Cosgray Road in Washington Township. The cemetery was photographed starting in the southeast corner to the northeast by rows. Underlined numbers and letters indicate that they are uncertain. Names bracketed by question marks are uncertain. Some names and dates have been filled in using a published 1983 index of the cemetery. The earliest recorded burial in this cemetery is that of Cyrus (surname unknown), son of J. & Jane, died July 17, 1841, aged 14 years. The last known burial was Rebecca Brownson, wife of Oren, who died Nov. 24, 1883. South side of post pictured above.

Joseph Fickle Ca 1750 - 1813

Joseph the son of Michael and Margaret (Slaymaker) Fickle was born about 1750. Josephs father named him the executor of his Will. Joseph was still living in Frederick Co. in 1784. His father having died in 1771 he sold a tract of land next to the "old Place". The "old Place" referred to that land owned by his mother Margaret.

By 1795 when his mother died Joseph was living in (Mongalia) Commonwealth of VA. Around that time he sold a tract of land called "Point", it being a part of the large tract called Brooks Discovery lying on Piney Creek in Frederick co. md. to Matthias Fickle, probably his brother.

The surname of Josephs wife is unknown. Her given name was Elizabeth.
a search of deeds; that each of ten children was to receive a tenth of the land Joseph owned.

The children of Joseph and Elizabeth are: Tatman

1. Elizabeth
2. Rachel
3. Jonathan
4. William
5. Daniel
6. Edward
7. Isaac
8. Sarah
9. Benjamin
10. Joseph

In 1812 Joseph purchased 160A in Muskingum Co. Ohio Sec. 36 Twp 17 Range 16 Hopewell Twp. This section became Perry Co. in 1818.

Joseph died in 1813 in what is now Perry Co. The date and place of death of Elizabeth is uncertain. Joseph was buried in Bethel cemetery, near Sego Madison Twp. Perry County, Ohio.

JOSEPH FICKLE

Joseph, the son of Michael and Margaret (Slaymaker) Fickle was born about 1750. Joseph's father named him the executor of his will. Joseph was still living in Frederick Co. in 1784. His father having died in 1771, he sold a tract of land next to the "Old Place." The "Old Place" referred to that land owned by his mother Margaret.

By 1795 when his Mother died Joseph was living in Mongalia County, Commonwealth of VA. (now West VA) Around that time he sold a tract of land called "Point", it being a part of the large tract called "Brooks Discovery" lying on Piney Creed in Frederick County, Md. to Matthias Fickle, probably his brother.

The surname of Joseph's wife is unknown. Her given name is Elizabeth. A deed shows that each of ten children were to eceive a tenth of the land Joseph owned. His children are:

1. Elizabeth
2. Rachel
3. Jonathan
4. William
5. Daniel
6. Edward
7. Isaac
8. Sarah
9. Benjamin
10. Joseph

In 1812 Joseph purchased 160 acres of land in Muskingun Ohio County, Sec. 36 Twp. 17 Range 16, Hopewell Twp.. This section became Perry County in 1818.

Joseph died in 1813 in what is now Perry County. The date and place of death of Elizabeth is uncertain. Joseph was buried in Bethel Cemetery near Sego, Madison Twp. Perry County, Ohio.

Subject: Census and Marriage Records

Hope everyone's having a wonderful holiday weekend. We're still very short of rain but the temperature has returned to normal levels!

To answer Rowena's question . . I'm in Atlanta and have a branch of the National Archives on the south side of town. I just drove through Pennsylvania twice in July and would have been glad to visit. Maybe the next time.

The last round of letters sent me back to my research papers. Mary and Rowena both touched on some issues I've been pondering.

1. Elizabeth Tatman who married Joseph Fickle: I have a marriage record for Elizabeth Tatman who married Joseph Fickle (I think he's the son of Benjamin and Rebecca Dusenberry) on 30 OCT 1827 in Perry Co.and have been wondering how the two may be related. I found the younger Joseph in 1860 Franklin Co., OH as a widower and now wonder if his wife is the Elizabeth Tatman that Rowena has death information about rather than the elder Elizabeth Tatman.

2. William Fickle born 1793: I also have a marriage record that shows that he married Ann Thompson on 24 MAR 1808 in Fairfield Co., OH. But I can understand Mary's uncertainty because I think there were two William Fickle living in Perry Co., OH in the 1810's. The 1819 tax records list: Benjamin, Joseph, Joseph, William, and William Fickle while 1820 census records show: Benjamin, Jonathan, Joseph D., Joseph G., Rebecca, and William Fickle. I think Rebecca could be the widow of William Fickle who may also be the William Ficle I found in Mason Co., KY. Perhaps he's one of Benjamin's children?

3. Daniel Fickle who married Hester Tipton: 1830 census records show that he had a male and a female (both age 20-29) living with him, but I don't know who they were.
Daniel moved his family to Cass Co., IN in the early to mid 1840's where Hester died 19 OCT 1851. His second wife was Malinda ???

4. Isaac Fickle who married Eliza Tipton: 1830 census records show that he had a male and a female (both age 10-14) living with him who didn't reside with him in 1820. I recently found a marriage record for Isaac Fickle and Mary Tale on 28 NOV 1816 in Fairfield Co., OH and wondered if the two extra children were from a first marriage. He apparently died before 1840 because the household is listed under her name in that census. I can tentatively identify his son born in the late 1830's, but none of his children. Does anyone have any info about him or his family?

Rowena's letter listed an Isaac Fickle died 30 SEP 1858 and married Mary 25 MAR 1825. The only Fickle listed for 1850 Marion Co., OH is a Sarah age 27. I have no idea who he is. Anyone have any ideas?

5. Edward Fickle who married Rebecca: The only census record I can find for any Edward Fickle anywhere is for 1830 Center Co., PA which lists an Edward with a son 10 - 14, and two sons 5 - 9. I have found a marriage record for Edward Frickle and Rebecca Miller on 5 JAN 1832 in Wayne Co., OH. Jonathan's name was also spelled Frickle in his marriage record. I'm not sure if he's Subject: Re: [FICKLE] How about a roll call?

Here's mine:

Michael Fickle married Margaret Slaymaker
Joseph Fickle married Elizabeth Tatman
William Fickle married AnnThompson (I have seen their gravestones in Indiana, by the way - and I just visited County Antrim in Northern Ireland - Ann emigrated from there with her parents when she was 11 years old. It was very moving to have seen her homeland after seeing her gravestone in Indiana.)
Isaac Fickle married Jane Miller
William Fickle (also known as Squire) married Phoebe Thompson
Alvin Thompson Fickle married Nancy Clendenning
William Walter Fickle married Mary Marie Shaffer
Jack Fickle married Jean Conrad
Barbara Fickle (me) married Jake Mackenzie...We live in Northern California...I am happy to share whatever info I have with others. I have lots of stuff on the Shaffers, by the way. Barbara

The New Lexington, Ohio Post Office has a memorial plate which reads, "Wm Dusenberry a friend of Washington". On an adjoining wall a painting of him as a Rev. soldier. Wm Dusenberry lies buried in a private Cem. on a part of his 1000 A farm near Sego in Madison Twp. General Philip Sheridan, after seeing the old soldier at the 4th of July celebration visited him at Sego & listened to his stories of the Revolution. He is alleged to have said in a speech at New Lexington, "I just learned Patriotism from Old William Dusenberry."

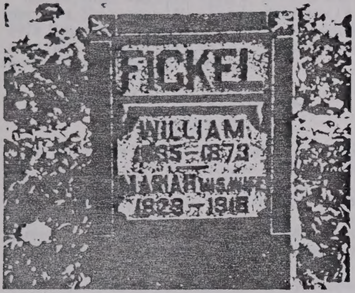
WILLIAM FICKEL

William Fickel was born on Feb. 28, 1835 in Perry County, Ohio. His father was William Fickel (1806-circa. 1853) and his mother was Sara Zartman (1802-1861). Both parents are buried in Pleasant Grove Cemetery, Perry County, Ohio.



William and Mariah Fickel Stone at Wesley Chapel Cemetery

William had one brother and two sisters, plus another infant brother that died. William's brother Bartholomew was a farmer and miner in Tazewell County, Illinois. William's sister Nancy died as a young girl. His other sister Drusilla married Al Rider of Columbus, Ohio.

William Fickel married Mariah Sowers on November 13, 1856 at McConnelsville, Ohio in Morgan County. To this union were born four boys.

William and Mariah farmed near Roseville, Ohio until he entered the service at the age of 29 on May 2, 1864 to fight in the Civil War. He was a private in Company K of the 159th Ohio Infantry. Immediately after muster-in, the Regiment was sent to Harper's Ferry, West Virginia. It went into camp on Maryland Heights until the 17th of May when it was ordered to report to General Lew Wallace. Four companies were detailed on guard duty at Camp Bradford, Baltimore, Maryland, where they remained during their tour of service. One company performed provost-guard duty in the city, another was detailed at Patterson Park Hospital and the remaining Companies were detailed to guard bridges on the Philadelphia, Wilmington, and Baltimore Railroad. During the rebel invasion one hundred men from the Regiment were mounted and participated in the Battle of Monocay Junction, July 9th and the skirmishes involved with the battle. On the 28th of July four companies of the Regiment were stationed at Havre de Grace in charge of the railroad at the point. On the 13th of August the Regiment was relieved from duty. It arrived at Zanesville, Ohio on the 17th of August and William was mustered out the 22 of August 1864.

After the Civil War, William made pottery on the Fickel farm, as well as farmed.

He and his wife Mariah were given forty acres of land by her father William Sowers. The 40 acre tract of land was covered with a dense growth of timber. Some of the oak trees were four feet thick. They cut and dragged them into log heaps and burned them. The stumps were grubbed and the land cultivated and planted to crops of corn, sorghum, and hay. An orchard was started containing peaches, apples, grapes, hickory, walnuts and hazel nuts.

William and Mariah built a log cabin that had a large room with a kitchen and shed attached. They made all of the shingles by hand with a trough and mallet. The fireplace was made of stones and chinked with clay. The pottery shop was near a spring on the Fickel farm. The clay pits were located near Roseville, Ohio and the clay hauled about two miles by oxen teams to the pot shop and kiln on the farm.

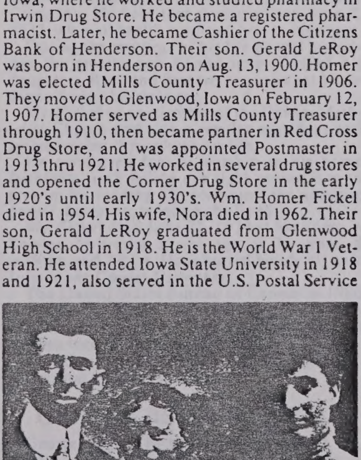
They sold the pot shop, house, farm, and household goods and started for Mills County, Iowa in Feb. 1873. William, Mariah and the four boys rode the train from Ohio to Anderson Township, Mills County, Iowa. William contracted small pox on the train and died two weeks after arriving in Iowa. He died Feb. 17, 1873 and is buried at Wesley Chapel Cemetery. Submitted by Terry Kullbom

WILLIAM AND MARIA FICKEL

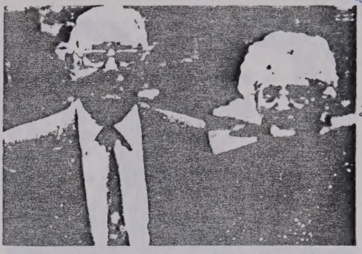
William and Maria Sowers Fickel, after arranging for the sale of their pottery and farm near Roseville, Ohio, came to Mills County, Iowa with their four sons about February 1, 1873. William was a Civil War veteran. He assisted in removing a man who had died on the train. From this man, William contracted smallpox and died on February 17, 1873.

Maria

Maria and her sons: Elhannan Clark, Joseph Benson, George Bertis, and William Homer, operated their farm in Anderson Township, near Wesley Chapel. Maria died in October 1918, age 89. Elhannan Clark married Julia A. Plumb; Joseph Benson married Ida M. Wearin; George Bertis married Georgianna Gaylord; Wm. Homer married Nora Elsie Dixon March 10, 1897. Homer and Nora settled in Henderson, Iowa, where he worked and studied pharmacy in Irwin Drug Store. He became a registered pharmacist. Later, he became Cashier of the Citizens Bank of Henderson. Their son, Gerald LeRoy was born in Henderson on Aug. 13, 1900. Homer was elected Mills County Treasurer in 1906. They moved to Glenwood, Iowa on February 12, 1907. Homer served as Mills County Treasurer through 1910, then became partner in Red Cross Drug Store, and was appointed Postmaster in 1913 thru 1921. He worked in several drug stores and opened the Corner Drug Store in the early 1920's until early 1930's. Wm. Homer Fickel died in 1954. His wife, Nora died in 1962. Their son, Gerald LeRoy graduated from Glenwood High School in 1918. He is the World War I Veteran. He attended Iowa State University in 1918 and 1921, also served in the U.S. Postal Service from 1920 to 1960. The last 15 years of this service as Postmaster, retiring on May 31, 1960.



Homer, Gerald and Nora



Gerald and Geraldine

Joan and Jean

Gerald married Miss Geraldine McMaster on Oct. 26, 1926. They became the parents of two daughters, Joan (Mrs. Francis Dashner), and Jean Hedberg, Ph.D., also grandparents of six children and great-grandparents of three boys.

Gerald is a member of Masonic Lodge, American Legion, and Congregational Church.

Geraldine is a graduate of University of Nebraska and came to Glenwood as a teacher. She was a teacher and librarian in Glenwood Junior High School for 35 years, also taught in first and fourth grades. She is a member of the Congregational Church, P.E.O., D.A.R., Mills County Historical Society and Museum. Gerald Fickel

FRANK AND ANNA FIELD

Frank Henry Field was born April 17, 1872 in Keene, New Hampshire to Artimus Henry and Sarah Ann (Davenport) Field. When he was seven years old he came with his parents and sister by steamship down the Ohio River to Cairo, Illinois, then overland by ox team to Thayer, Missouri in Oregon County. They made their home in Thayer for some time and it was there that his sister Clara died when she was 16.

Frank and Anna Field

After attending grade school in Thayer, Frank went to Kansas City to work in the Fort Scott railroad yards, and was soon promoted to work in the car repair department. Frank was also a

MARVYN AND MARY FERNALD

Marvyn C. and Mary L. Fernald moved to Glenwood with their sons Shawn Michael and Sidney Stewart on Thanksgiving Day in 1968. Mary L. (Mitzel) Fernald was originally from Edgeley, North Dakota, where her parents farmed raising dairy cows, wheat, and eleven children. Mary, the second oldest child, attended one year of business college in Wahpeton, North Dakota, and later accepted a secretarial position in Minneapolis with Bestwall Certain-teed Company. Marvyn C., originally from Winthrop, Iowa, was the only son of Marvyn C. and Dorothy Fernald. He attended college at Iowa State University, University of Northern Iowa, and Northwestern College of Chiropractic.

Dr. Marvyn, Mary, Shawn, and Sidney Fernald

Marvyn and Mary met in Minneapolis and were married on November 24, 1962, at the Transfiguration Catholic Church in Edgeley, North Dakota. They made their first home together in Minneapolis until Marvyn received his Doctor of Chiropractic Degree. Following graduation, Marvin took over a clinic for Dr. Helm in Thief River Falls, Minnesota. Dr. Helm had suffered a heart attack, but as soon as he recovered the Fernalds moved to Cedar Falls, Iowa, where Marvyn assisted Dr. Vorland for three years. While in Cedar Falls their sons were born; Shawn on March 3, 1965, and Sidney on May 19, 1966.

When the Fernalds arrived in Glenwood, they made their first home at 209 West Florence and later moved to 1017 North Walnut. Dr. Fernald had the office formerly occupied by Dr. Michaelson completely remodeled and began his practice. While doing this he also was doing post-graduate work with National College of Chiropractic and Northwestern College of Chiropractic. Mary stayed at home with her two sons for fourteen years involving herself with things like starting the Gingerbread Pre-School, Red Cross swimming program, swim team, little league baseball and football, bridge, tennis and teaching the first communion class at Holy Rosary Catholic Church. In 1969 she received her real estate license and has been active with Jim Hughes Real Estate Company. Shawn is attending college at Iowa State University and Sid is attending college at Northwest Missouri State College in Maryville, Missouri.

ELHANAN CLARK FICKEL

Elhanan Clark Fickel was born near Roseville, Ohio on Oct. 15, 1857. His parents were William Fickel and Mariah Sowers. Mr. Fickel spent his childhood in Ohio, moving to Hastings, Iowa with his parents and three brothers in Feb. 1873 at the age of fifteen.

Elhanan and Julia Fickel with their 9 children.

He worked as a hired man for George Plumb on the farm. When he was twenty three years old, he married George Plumb's sixteen year old daughter, Julia Plumb.

Elhanan Clark Fickel and Julia Plumb were united in marriage at Hastings, Iowa on Jan. 7, 1881.

In 1885, Mr. Fickel with his wife and family moved to Oakland, Iowa where he engaged in farming. In Feb. 1893, Mr. Fickel bought 160 acres of land in Belknap Township, Pottawattamie County for $6,700.

In Feb. of 1911, he sold this same amount of land to James A. Bolton for $21,600.

They moved to a farm 3 miles north of Cowles, Nebraska near the Kansas-Nebraska border in the Spring of 1911. He bought land in Webster County, Nebraska in March 1911 for $21,600 and year after year had crop failures.

His son Carl died Oct. 11, 1911 at the age of fifteen due to a peritonsilar abcess rupturing and causing a fatal hemorrhage. His wife Julia died Oct. 9, 1916. He sold the farm in March 1917 for $20,200.

Mr. Fickel moved to the village of Cowles in the spring of 1917.

Mr. Fickel spent the rest of his life there. He was for a time in the elevator business, later taking over the operation of the F.A. Good Lumber Company. He held that position until June 8, 1933, when ill health confined him to his home.

During the last year of his life he was bedridden the greater part of the time. Two of his daughters, Ruth and Bess were in constant attendance during his sickness.

Mr. Fickel was a member of the Cowles Methodist Church and was a regular attendant and active worker throughout his life.

He conducted family worship in his home faithfully, until failing eye sight caused him to give up his reading. He continued the morning prayer, however, as long as he lived.

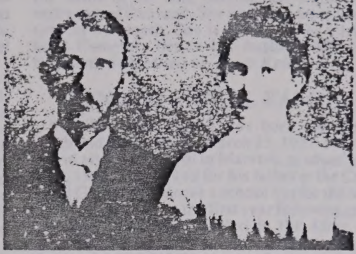
Mr. Fickel died June 22, 1934 at his home in Cowles, Nebraska at the age of 76 years, 8 months, and 7 days. He is buried beside his wife Julia in the Cowles Cemetery.

The United States Bureau of Census in 1980 established Cowles, Nebraska as Nebraska's poorest community. It had the lowest annual median income in the state of $4821.

First the crops dried up — then the town did. Submitted by Terry Kullbom

GEORGE BERTUS FICKEL

George Bertus Fickel was born March 12, 1864 to William Fickel and Maria Sowers in Roseville, Ohio. He was the 3rd of 4 sons. George was named after General G.B. McClelland. He can remember how his grandfather, William Sowers, always dressed as a Quaker. At an early age the family moved to a farm north of Hastings in the Wesley Chapel area, where Bert, as he was known, resided till he was in his 80's, when he went to live with his children. He was married on March 1, 1894 to Georgianna Gaylord who was a native of Mills County. She had been a school teacher. To them were born three children.



George and Georgia Fickel

Faye, born September 3, 1896 and passed away November 16, 1979. She had three sons, two who have passed away. They are all buried in Wesley Chapel Cemetery.

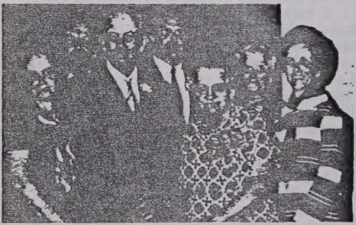
Hugh Nelson was born May 1, 1901 and passed away November 18, 1975. He married Edna Solberg, December 21, 1920. To this union were bon five children. Hugh and Edna are both buried in Malvern Cemetery.

Donald L. was born May 16, 1905. He presently lives in Salem, Oregon. He's the father of three children.

Bert passed away on October 1, 1958 in New York where he resided with his daughter. Georgia died in March, 1933. Both are buried not far from the farm where they made their home in the Wesley Chapel Cemetery and the Methodist Church is right across the road, where they were both active. Submitted by Arlene Hilton

HUGH AND EDNA FICKEL

Hugh Nelson Fickel was born May 1, 1901 in the Wesley Chapel neighborhood north of Hastings, Iowa. His parents were George Burtus and Georgianna Gaylord Fickel. George Burtus Fickel came to Iowa from Ohio with his parents and three brothers. Hugh had one sister, Faye Blunt Eskew, who is now deceased and one brother, Donald who now lives in Salem, Oregon.



Front: Betty, Hugh, Edna, Rose Marie. Back: Richard, Ronald and Arlene taken 1970.

Hugh was a life time member of the Wesley Chapel Methodist Church. He attended school at a country school north of Hastings and further schooling was in the Malvern Public School, Malvern, Iowa, leaving school to help on the farm. He was a self educated man, working for the railroad in Council Bluffs, Iowa as a mechanic.

Hugh married Edna Teresa Solberg when she came to Iowa from Oxford, Nebraska, to teach in a country school north of Hastings. She had graduated from the public school in Oxford, Nebraska, later returning there for her 50th class reunion. Hugh and Edna were married in Council Bluffs, Iowa, on December 24th 1920. Edna's parents were Anton and Marie Christensen Solberg who homesteaded around Oxford, Nebraska, coming from Norway in 1892. Edna had four brothers and four sisters. One sister survives.

In 1922 Edna and Hugh moved to Hastings where they operated a creamery. In 1923 they came to Malvern where Hugh worked for Salyers Auto as a mechanic until 1937 when he decided to go into business for himself. He built his own building and started the Cross Roads Garage north of Malvern which is still in operation. In 1941 a tornado struck and demolished this business. Not to be discouraged easily, Hugh and Edna decided that the garage should be rebuilt and it was business as usual in this building until the need for larger facilities required that a larger building be built. During World War II Edna and the rest of the family helped Hugh when it was not easy to find help. They were involved in this business until September, 1975 when sons, Richard and Ronald, purchased the business. Hugh did not live long to enjoy retirement. He passed away November 18, 1975 after three months stay in the hospital. Edna continued to live in the home they had occupied together for about 47 years. They had celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in 1970 with all their children and grandchildren present. They are buried in the Malvern, Iowa, cemetery.

Hugh and Edna were parents of five children; Arlene, Richard, Betty, Rose Marie and Ronald.

Arlene was born in Council Bluffs, Iowa. She married Wayne E. Hilton and they had four children; Kathleen, Wayne E., Jr., Carolyn and David. Wayne, Sr. passed away on March 20, 1976 and is buried in the Malvern cemetery.

Richard was born at Hastings, Iowa, and served four years in the military service. He worked with his father in the garage after returning from service.

Betty was born in Hastings. She married Lee Stribling of Shenandoah and they have three children; Sharon, Gary and Steven.

Rose Marie was born in Malvern. She married Roger Lynn Shaw. They were parents of Alan Lynn, Cheryl, Diane and Roger Alan. Alan Lynn died in infancy and Roger Lynn died in October, 1969. They are buried in the Malvern Cemetery.

Ronald was born in Malvern and married Mary Bargenquast. Their children are; Teri, Deborah, Ronald and Wendy.

Edna was a member of the United Methodist Women's Society. She enjoyed doing hand work, sewing and cooking for her family and especially loved raising flowers and working in the yard.

Hugh was a long time member of the Malvern Fire Department, the Malvern Gun Club and was happiest when he was hunting and fishing.

Like all who experienced the depression years, life was not always easy and through the good and bad years, Hugh and Edna always put their family first. This is the only way their children remember them. Submitted by Rose Marie Shaw

JOSEPH BENSON FICKEL

In 1873 J.B. Fickel (nickname "Bent") migrated to Anderson Twp., Mills County, with his parents and three brothers from Ohio. His parents were William and Maria Sowers Fickel. "J.B." was the second of four sons. They were Elhanan Clark, born 1885; Joseph Benson, born 1860; George Bertus born 1864; William Homer, 1869. The father died in his third week of residence in Iowa of smallpox. The family farm was of eighty acres near the Wesley Chapel Church. "J.B.'s" parents are buried in the Wesley Chapel Cemetery.

Joseph B. Fickel

Joseph Benson throughout his life was always known as "J.B." or "Bent." On September 5, 1885, he married Ida M. Wearin. She was the daughter of a pioneer couple, Josiah and Olive Smith Wearin. The four hundred acre farm the couple settled on was a wedding gift of Ida's parents. Interestingly enough it was located immediately to the east of "J.B.'s" mother's farm. Here they spent their life farming. And here their three children were born and raised, June, Ward and Flora.

All three children attended high school in Malvern. June attended Simpson College and Ward Simpson Academy, Indianola, Iowa. Both studied in the Simpson Conservatory of Music, yet both returned to the family farm.

Ward Lawrence Fickel married Eva Braden. They had a daughter Laurine. This marriage was dissolved. On June 5, 1920 he married Nellie Danley Luther, a widow with two children: George Arthur, born 1912; Ura Jeannette, born 1916. Her parents Charles Henry and Lola Bevis Danley were among the original settlers of the Wesley Community. But from 1886 to 1915 they homesteaded in Kansas. Then returning to farm in the Wesley Community.

Ward and his new family settled on his parents' farm, forming a partnership of J.B. Fickel and Son. To this union two sons were born: Ward Lawrence, Jr. born 1922; Jack Danley Fickel, born 1924. Of the four children none remained on the land. Each went into a profession or business. Arthur graduated from Simpson College in 1935 with a B.A. and University of Iowa 1942 with an M.A. He remained unmarried and taught American history in junior college and high school. Jeanette graduated from Simpson with a B.M. (Music) in 1937. She taught in Iowa schools. Married Attorney Edward M. Yaklich. Has four children and five grandchildren. Lawrence graduated from Simpson 1947 with a B.S. and was in the automobile dealership business. Married Ruth Pemble and has three children and five grandchildren. Jack graduated from the University of Iowa with an M.D., 1949. He was a navy doctor. In private practice, Red Oak, Iowa for 25 years. And at present holds the position of Chief of Medical Services, Veterans Hospital, Fayetteville, Arkansas. Married Barbara Donahue. Has four children and five grandchildren. G. Arthur Luther

MILLIE MAE FICKEL

Millie Mae Fickel was born August 9, 1886. Her parents were Elhanan Clark Fickel and Julia Plumb. Millie's parents moved from Mills County to a farm near Oakland in 1885, and she was born the next year. She was the next to the oldest of eight children.

She married Albert Gustaf Kullbom on Dec. 11, 1907 at the Methodist Parsonage in Carson, Iowa.

To this union three boys were born; 1) Merrill Clark Kullbom, Sr. (Sept. 11, 1908-Jan. 9, 1981) Married Ruth Louise Raschke Aug. 10, 1935. Children; (1.) Merrill Clark Jr. — born Jan. 4, 1939 (2.) Karen — born Jan. 23, 1942. 2) Dale Gustav Kullbom (1908-) Married Velma Vaught. Children; (1.) Stanley Dale — born 1936; (2.) Kathleen Ann — born 1944. 3) Marion Albert Kullbom (Nov. 8, 1915-) Married Ellen Mae Campbell Jan. 1, 1938. Children; (1.) Terrence Lee — born May 22, 1940; (2.) James Byron — born Nov. 4, 1943; (3.) Willard Marshall — born May 15, 1950; (4.) Michael Meredith — born June 20, 1954.

Millie and Albert Kullbom lived and farmed outside of Oakland, Iowa all of their life. Albert died August 3, 1937, and is buried in the Carson, Iowa Cemetery. After her husband's death, Millie went to live on the farm with her son, Marion.

Millie Mae Kullbom died August 8, 1958 at the home of her son, Marion, on the farm 12 miles east of Oakland. She was 72 years old at the time of her death. She is buried in the Carson, Iowa Cemetery beside her husband Albert G. Kullbom. Submitted by Terry Kullbom

RONALD FICKEL FAMILY

Ronald Bruce Fickel, was born the son of Hugh and Edna Fickel, March 25, 1937. He lived in and attended school in Malvern, graduating in May, 1954. He worked for his father at the Cross Road Garage and drove a school bus for the Malvern School District the first year following graduation. In 1955, he enlisted in the Army. He spent 16 months in Korea. Upon discharge from the service in 1958, he returned to work for his father.

On April 30, 1960, Ron and Mary Louise Bargenquast, daughter of Detlef and Leona Bargenquast, were united in marriage at the Malvern United Methodist Church. Following a wedding trip to Colorado, they made their home in the house west of the Cross Road Garage. At that time, Dr. Warden Rimel owned the property. In 1962, Hugh Fickel bought the farmstead. Over the years, several improvements were made in the house, but the outside looks much the same as it did when the Rimel family owned it.

Ron and Mary were parents of four children. They all attended school in Malvern. Teri, their eldest daughter, was born November 8, 1960. She was a thirteen year member and valedictorian of the graduating class of 1979. After graduation, she enrolled in the College of Pharmacy at Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa. On May 12th, 1984, Teri graduated as a Pharmacist and the last part of May began her duties as a "staff pharmacist" at Jane Lamb Memorial Hospital in Clinton, Iowa.

Debra, their second daughter, was born October 20, 1962. Deb graduated with the Class of 1981. After graduation, she enrolled at Iowa Methodist School of Nursing in Des Moines. On June 1, 1984, she graduated as a Registered Nurse. Deb worked for a short time at Iowa Methodist Medical Center. In August, 1984, she enrolled at Grand View College working toward a BSN. At present, she is working part time at the Iowa Jewish Home.

Their son Ronald Dean, was born December 13, 1968. Luckily, they weren't superstitious since Ron was born on Friday the 13th and was the 13th grandchild on both sides of the family. Today, Ron is a sophomore at Malvern High. He is active in football, baseball, band, chorus, jazz band, swing choir, pep band, is in the National Honor Society. For the past several years he has been in the Courtesy Court. He is an avid hunter and fisherman in his spare time — a "Fickel trait."

The youngest member of the family, Gwendolyn "Wendy" was born October 23, 1976. She is 8 years old and is in the second grade at Forrest

Birth: Jan. 2, 1842
Pennsylvania, USA

Death: Dec. 23, 1928
Neosho County
Kansas, USA

Belleville Telescope (Bellville, KS), January 3, 1929

George Washington Fickel, our departed friend, was born in Pennsylvania, Jan. 2, 1842, and departed this life at the home of his son, Franklin, near Chanute, Kan., Dec. 23, 1928, being at the time of his demise, 86 years, 10 months and 21 days.

At the outbreak of the Civil war, he enlisted in the Ohio Infantry, and fought for this country over three years, when he was given an honorable discharge.

On July 20, 1865, he was married to Catherine Elizabeth Dusenberry, at New Lexington, Ohio. To this union thirteen children were born, three of whom preceded him in death. His wife died July 29, 1900, at the age of 56 years, 2 months and 25, days. Thirty-one living grandchildren survive him.

He came to Kansas in 1871, living near Clyde for some time, then took a homestead in Republic county, not far from Agenda, in 1874, and knew all the rigors and hardships of early pioneer days.

For nearly six years, he has made his home with his son, Franklin, near Chanute, where he has been most tenderly cared for by his son and daughter-in-law.

The Funeral services were held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ekstrom, near Wayne, Kan., Dec. 26, 1928, being conducted by the pastor of the Methodist Church, Miss Gagrielson. Interment was at Union cemetery, by the side of his uncle, for whom he was named.

Fickle

Posted by Richard Loshbough <closh@bellsouth.net> on Mon, 28 Aug 2000, in response to FICKLE, posted by Mary and Don Saban on Thu, 29 Jun 2000

Surname: FICKLE, SKINNER

I am a descendant of Mariah Fickle of Perry County Ohio. From the IGI there is an allegation that her parents were Benjamin Fickles and Rebeckah Dusenberry. She married Ruel Skinner of Perry County in 1844. I have that documentation. I am looking for help in confirming her parents.

James Madison President of the United States of America,

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, GREETING:

Know ye, That Nathan Hanthorne assignee of Benjamin Fickle ——— having deposited in the Treasury a certificate of the Register of the Land-office at Zanesville whereby it appears that full payment has been made for the North West quarter of Section number Thirty one, of Township number seventeen, in Range number fifteen. ——— of the lands directed to be sold at Zanesville by the act of Congress, entitled "An act providing for the sale of the lands of the United States in the territory north-west of the Ohio, and above the mouth of Kentucky river," and of the acts amendatory of the same, There is granted, by the United States, unto the said Nathan Hanthorne, the quarter lot or section of land above described; To have and to hold the said Quarter lot or section of land, with the appurtenances, unto the said Nathan Hanthorne, his — ——— heirs and assigns forever.

In testimony whereof, I have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand at the city of Washington, the third day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ten and of the Independence of the United States of America, the thirty fourth.

BY THE PRESIDENT.

Both Joseph FICKLE, Jr. and his wife Mary(Dusenberry) are buried in the cemetery of the Bethel Methodist Church, near Sego,(Perry) OH The church itself was built in 1837 of red brick. Two chandeliers having three oil lamps each and side lamps on the pulpit provided light. In 1941 Bethel Methodist Church still stood, in good condition except for a couple broken windows.

I visited Helen Urban in 1985. She is 81 years old. Her son has compiled a history of the family and much information is in that history.

WHISSEMORE PHOTOGRAPH COLLECTION
RICHLAND COUNTY, OHIO

Submitted by Thomas Stephen Neel, New London, Ohio

In 1876 at the Centennial celebration in Mansfield, Richland Co., Ohio, local photographer, A. Whissemore, offered to take a free picture of every person over age 60 who had been a resident of the county at least 50 years. The 1,194 item collection was purchased by the Richland County Historical Society in 1903, and is now a part of the Ohio Genealogical Society Library manuscript collection (Rare Book Room). Only 653 identified portraits and 239 unidentified portraits survive, for a total of 892. It is not known what happened to the other 302 pictures, including surnames beginning with the letters "A" and "C". The cards, each measuring 2 1/4 x 4 inches, are sepia tone, and in excellent condition. In some cases, the name has faded away, but the pencil impression may often be discerned. 90% of the photographs have the following inscription on the reverse side: "A. Whissemore, Photographer, Northwest Corner Public Park, Over Blymyer's Stove Store, Mansfield, Ohio, Negatives Preserved". Additionally, some images were taken by Whissemore & Johnston (opposite the Opera House) and Campbell & Camp. Not all the pioneers were over age 60 and many were not 50-year residents, despite the photographer's initial request. Many photographs may have been labeled at a somewhat later date, because the same names identify some obviously different images. Many times, a note "see ----" appears; perhaps a step in the identification process. Photocopies may be obtained from the Ohio Genealogical Society, P.O. Box 2625, Mansfield, OH 44906. The price is currently 15 cents per copy, plus an SASE.

RICHLAND COUNTY, OHIO

Submitted by Thomas Stephen Neel, New London, Ohio

In 1876 at the Centennial celebration in Mansfield, Richland Co., Ohio, local photographer, A. Whissemore, offered to take a free picture of every person over age 60 who had been a resident of the county at least 50 years. The 1,194 item collection was purchased by the Richland County Historical Society in 1903, and is now a part of the Ohio Genealogical Society Library manuscript collection (Rare Book Room). Only 653 identified portraits and 239 unidentified portraits survive, for a total of 892. It is not known what happened to the other 302 pictures, including surnames beginning with the letters "A" and "C". The cards, each measuring 2 1/4 x 4 inches, are sepia tone, and in excellent condition. In some cases, the name has faded away, but the pencil impression may often be discerned. 90% of the photographs have the following inscription on the reverse side: "A. Whissemore, Photographer, Northwest Corner Public Park, Over Blymyer's Stove Store, Mansfield, Ohio, Negatives Preserved". Additionally, some images were taken by Whissemore & Johnston (opposite the Opera House) and Campbell & Camp. Not all the pioneers were over age 60 and many were not 50-year residents, despite the photographer's initial request. Many photographs may have been labeled at a somewhat later date, because the same names identify some obviously different images. Many times, a note "see ----" appears; perhaps a step in the identification process. Photocopies may be obtained from the Ohio Genealogical Society, P.O. Box 2625, Mansfield, OH 44906. The price is currently 15 cents per copy, plus an SASE.

Keosauqua Republican--Nov. 30 1916

Mrs. Gertrude Fickel McKean was born near Stockport, IA, Dec 10, 1880. Her girlhood days were spent in the vicinity of her birth. She attended the old Day School southwest of Stockport. As a girl among her playmates she was full of life, vigor and ambition. This ambition carried her on into her choosen field of music. At the age of nine years, she began as a piano student of the Stockport community under Prof. A. M. Cole of Birmingham with whom she worked for several years, later giving lessons herself. She decided to take up the study of music whereupon she entered Drake University of Des Moines and graduated from their public school of music course in June 1910. During the summer of 1910, she studied in the Cedar Falls Normal School. She taught her chosen work in Bellvue, IA, where she had supervision of both grade and high school music. In September 1912, she entered the Teachers College, Columbia University, New York City, NY, where she graduated from the public school music course in 1914. During her study in Teachers College, she formed the acquaintance of Mr. H. A. McKean, who was also a student in Teachers College. From this acquaintance grew true devotion and love, and on 3 September 1914, Miss Gertrude Gretchen Fickel became the wife of H. A, McKean. After their marriage, Mr. & Mrs. McKean returned to Teachers College to pursue additional educational work. Since that time, Mrs. McKean's one purpose has been to make her home a home in which love, devotion and fellowship should reign. She was ever mindful that to grow and progress, we must be ambitious and ever hold to the ideals of true love and service. Her winning grace and service of other won her many friends wherever she went. While in Drake University, she consecrated her life to the service of her Master and from this purpose she never departed. She was at the time of her death a member of the Christian Church of Stockport, IA. She departed this life at the parential home in Stockport, Saturday, November 18, 1916. Burial in the Spencer Cemetery. She leaves a husband, Prof. H. A. McKean of Kirksville, MO, an infant daughter, Gertrude Louise, father and mother, Mr. & Mrs. LeRoy Fickel and one sister, Mrs. J. C. Schulz.

FICKLE, William

It can not be other than interesting to note in the series of personal sketches appearing in this memorial history the varying conditions that have compassed those whose careers are outlined, and the effort has been made in each case to throw well-focused light onto the individuality and to bring into proper perspective the scheme of each respective character. Each man who strives to fulfill his part in connection with human life and human activities is deserving of recognition, whatever may be or have been the filed of his endeavor, and it is the function of works of this nature to perpetuate for future generations an authentic record concerning those represented in its pages and the value of such publications is certain to be cumulative for all time to come, showing forth the individual and specific accomplishments of which generic history is ever engendered. The beginning of the career of the late William Fickle, for many years one of Clinton county's well known citizens, was characterized by hard work and conscientious endeavor, and he owed his rise to no train of fortunate incidents or fortuitous circumstances. It was the reward of application of mental qualifications of a high order to the affairs of business, the combining with keen perceptions mental activity that enabled him to grasp the opportunities that presented themselves. This he did with success and, what is more important, with honor. His integrity was ever unassailable, his honor unimpeachable, and he stood "four square to every wind that blew," highly esteemed by all who knew him.

Mr. Fickle was born in the year 1839, in Perry township, Clinton county. He was a son of Isaac FICKLE, born in 1815, a son of William and Ann (THOMPSON) FICKLE. The former born in Virginia in 1784, and the latter a native of Ireland, from which county she came to America when young. The Fickle family removed from Virginia to Perry county and from there in a very early day to what is now Perry township, Clinton county, where the elder Fickle became a very large land owner and prominent citizen in the early pioneer days. Isaac Fickle married Jane M. MILLER, a daughter of Robert MILLER, a native of South Carolina from which state he came to Clinton county, in 1829, locating in what is now Madison township, where he remained until 1841, when he went to Mercer county, Illinois, and died there.

William Fickle, subject of this memoir, grew to manhood on the home farm and received such education as the early-day schools afforded. On October 22, 1863, he married Phoebe Ann THOMPSON, with whom he walked peaceably and happily the rugged path of life for nearly a half century. She was born February 20, 1844, a daughter of William and Sarah (RYAN) THOMPSON, of Preble county, Ohio, where he was born January 29, 1816, grandfather was born in Ireland, and whose wife was a German woman. Reese THOMPSON and wife came to Indiana in a very early day and both died in Tippecanoe county, the grandfather at the age of eighty-two and the grandmother at the age of sixty-two. It was in 1832 that William Thompson and wife came to Indiana. Their family consisted of the following children: Winfield, who lives in Clarks Hill, Ind.; Mrs. Phoebe Ann FICKLE, widow of our subject; Mrs. Mary E. EVERHART; William, who lived in California, supposed to have been killed in the earthquake of 1906; James, living in Washington township, this county; Owen, living in Madison township, and Mrs. Cara STINSON, living in Perry township.

William Fickle devoted his life to general farming and stock raising with more than ordinary success, for he was a persistent worker, a good manager and a man of sound judgement and wise foresight. He became owner of over six hundred acres of valuable and productive land which he brought up to a high state of cultivation and improvement, and which he eventually divided up among his children of whom there were twelve, named as follows: Mrs. Fena J. HORLACHER, born July 20, 1864; Alvin T., April 22, 1866; Fernando J., October 24, 1867; Sarah L., March 28, 1870; Joe E., February 4, 1872; Estella M., October 4, 1873; Charles R., December 3, 1875; Mrs. Ora A. ANDERSON, November 26, 1878; Orvil O., December 13, 1880; Floyd S., May 3, 1882, Lorie L., August 13, 1884, and Elda E. BENNETT, December 3, 1886.

Mr. Fickle was for a number of years justice of the peace in his township and proved to be a popular public servant owing to his fairness to all concerned. He was a member of the United Presbyterian church, in which he was elder for a number of years. The death of this splendid citizen occurred in March, 1913, and all who knew him sincerely regretted his passing away.

FICKLE, Willi B.

The biographer is glad to note in this series of sketches that there are so many retired farmers within the borders of Clinton county, for it shows that here is a prosperous and contented people and a locality unrivaled in agricultural possibilities. In countries where the land is poor and the inhabitants indifferent, contented merely to live along the line of least resistance, one does not find retired farmers, such a thing can not be from the very nature of things. The name of William B. Fickle, of Mulberry, appears on the list of those who have spent their active years in tilling the soil, have accumulated a comfortable competency through their thrift and good management and are now enjoying serenely the fruits of their earlier years of toil. He is another of the prominent old family, records of which fill a good many pages in this publication, and, like the rest of the family he has lived an industrious, useful and honorable life.

Mr. Fickle was born in Washington township, Clinton county, on November 16, 1849, the year of the memorable gold excitement, which sent thousands across the dangerous western plains. He is a son of Joseph Fickle, born in Perry county, Ohio, in 1813, during the second war with Great Britain. He spent his earlier years in his native state, finally located in Clinton county, Indiana, in an early day and here became a prosperous farmer and spent the rest of his life here, dying in 1875 at the age of seventy-two years. He was a son of William and Ann (THOMPSON) FICKLE, the former a native of Pensylvania, and the latter was born in Dublin, Ireland. She was a great Bible student and could debate with preachers on the Scriptures. William Fickle came to Clinton county as early as 1832, bought land and returned to Perry county, Ohio, from which place he moved his family here in 1834, making the journey in wagons. There home here was a log cabin until they could get their farm under way and build a more pretentious dwelling. He prospered and became one of the largest land owners in this locality. He received a deed signed by the great name of Andrew Jackson, President at that time. William and Ann Fickle had seven children, four sons and three daughters, namely: Hugh, Isaac, John, Joseph, Mrs. Nancy HAYLETTE, Sarah, who married James Fickle, and Jane.

Joseph Fickle was reared in Perry county, Ohio. In 1834, when twenty-one years old he married Elizabeth D. BROWN, daughter of Judge John BROWN, of Washington township, Clinton county, she being one of a family of two sons and four daughters, namely: Samuel and John, the two sons are both deceased; Mrs. Elizabeth D. Fickle; two daughters who live in Rochester, Ind.; and one deceased. Six children were born to Joseph Fickle and wife, namely: William B., of this sketch; Margaret, who married Thomas McBRIDE; Sarah, Elizabeth, is deceased, as is also Nancy; Mary, who married John GLENDENING is deceased. The father of the above named children devoted his life to farming. Politically, he was a Democrat, and he belonged to the Presbyterian church.

William B. Fickle, of this sketch, was reared on the home farm an educated in the common schools. He remained at home helping his father until he married at the age of twenty-four years, choosing as a life partner Elizabeth McBRIDE, daughter of John McBRIDE, of Perry county, Ohio. After living awhile in Montgomery county, that state, the family came on to Clinton county, Indiana, and settled in Washington township where Mrs. Fickle grew to womanhood and was educated. She was one of a family of eight children, three sons and five daughters, namely: Thomas, William, James, all deceased; Louisa is the widow of John A. Horlacher, deceased; Elizabeth, wife of Mr. Fickle; Matilda and Amanda are deceased; Mrs. Emma GRICE lives in Washington township. The death of John McBRIDE occurred at the age of sixty-five years, his widow surviving until eighty years of age. They were members of the Presbyterian church.

Three children have been born to our subject and wife, namely: Mrs. Nellie RINEHART, who lives near Rossville, Ind.; Joseph E., is married and has three children, William W., Jesse E. and John A.; Katie, who died when twenty-five years of age, was the wife of D. W. CLENDENING, she left two sons, Forest and Maurice.

William B. Fickle owns the old home place which consists of one hundred and sixty-eight and one-half acres, which he has kept under excellent improvements and cultivation. He has made a success as a general farmer and stock raiser. He also owns a good dwelling in Mulberry, where he has lived since 1910, when he retired from active life.

WILLIAM FICKLE WILL ADMITTED TO PROBATE

Alvin T. Fickle was appointed executor of the will of his father, the late William Fickle, when the instrument was admitted to probate in the circuit court yesterday afternoon.

According to provisions of the will, certain sums in cash are bequeathed to his eight children. The sum of $500 is to be deposited in a bank at Mulberry as an endowment for the Mount Pleasant Presbyterian church, the interest from the money to be paid annually. The balance of the estate, real and personal is bequeathed to the widow, Mrs. Phoebe Anna Fickle. Regarding the endowment to the church, it is provided that in case the church is ever disorganized, then one-half the sum is to be given the foreign missionary society and one-half to the home missionary society of the church.

The sums assigned to the children are as follows: Fena J. Horlacher, $1,840; Alvin T. Fickle, $1,540; Chas. H. Fickle, $1,796; Ora Ann Anderson, $760; Floyd S. Fickle, $2,275; Lorie L. Fickle, $2,800; Fida Fickle, $2,340. Because Charles Fickle had injured his hand, he was to receive $500 more. The will provides that a monument is to be erected over the grave at a cost of not more than $300. All just debts are to be paid first from the estate.

Subject: Re: "My" Fickle line

I think your Stewart G. is a son of Edward Fickle and his wife Rebecca. Edward was the youngest son of Joseph and Elizabeth. I think if you get from the Marion Co., OH record from Estate Settlement Journal 6,, p. 152 dated 13 Jul 1846 it will give you all of Edward's children which includes Stewart G.. I do not have a copy of this document or I would send it to you. I have been looking for more data on Joseph and Elizabeth without much success. Joseph should have been in the Rev War but I have found nothing on this, have you had any luck on this. Also many Fickle researchers say Joseph's wife's maiden name was Tatman. I have seen this but not a reference from anyplace. What might you know about this? Let me know if there is anything else I can help you with. Gary

SILAS W. FICKEL.

Silas W. Fickel, now living retired in a pleasant home in Taylorville, Ohio, was born March 24, 1847, in Madison township, Perry county, Ohio, and is a son of George and Hannah (Harding) Fickel. The father was likewise a native of Perry county, while the mother's birth occurred in Licking county, Ohio. The paternal grandfather, Joseph Fickel, came from Pennsylvania to the Buckeye state, settling in Perry county about 1820. He was of Dutch lineage, while his wife was of Scotch descent. Becoming the owner of a tract of land of one hundred and sixty acres, he devoted his remaining days to its cultivation and improvement. George Fickel also became a farmer and continuously engaged in the tilling of the soil until February 1, 1864, when he joined the army, enlisting as a member of Company B, Seventy-eighth Ohio Volunteer Infantry. He was afterward transferred to the Twenty-second Veteran Reserve Corps on the 13th of September, 1864, and served until the close of the war, being mustered out at Columbus, Ohio, July 13, 1865. Since that time he has largely lived retired and now makes his home at Fultonham at the age of eighty years. His wife died March 25, 1904, at the age of seventy-seven years. In his family were nine children, of whom six are now living.

Silas W. Fickel pursued his education in the graded schools of Fultonham and he, too, responded to the country's call for aid when the south attempted to overthrow the Union. He was but seventeen years of age when he enlisted on the 4th of January, 1864, and joined the boys in blue of Company B, Seventy-eighth Ohio Infantry. He participated in the battle of Peach Tree Creek and a number of skirmishes, and was wounded on the 26th of August, 1864, while in action near Atlanta, Georgia. He was shot above the knee and had his leg amputated, but amputation was again necessary and the member was cut off about five and a half inches from the hip. He was in the hospital at Marietta, Georgia, at Atlanta, Chattanooga and Nashville, also at Louisville, Kentucky, and Madison, Indiana, and 1853, in Wayne township, Muskingum county, and was a daughter of Edward and Mary (Bagley) Erwine, both of whom were natives of Virginia. Unto Mr. and Mrs. Fickel was born a daughter, Minnie, whos birth occurred June 23, 1871, and is now the wife of Emil Waterstraat, a resident of Portland, Oregon. They have also reared an adopted son and for seven years their granddaughter has lived with them. The former, Edgar Lear, is a nephew of Mr. Fickel, and the granddaughter is Maude Waxler.

Mr. Fickel now has a fine home in Taylorville and another fine residence and he is living retired, being in comfortable financial circumstances. He votes with the republican party, which was the defense of the Union cause at the time of the Civil war and has always been the advocate of progress, reform and improvement. His wife is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and both are highly esteemed by a large circle of warm friends.

DAVID BUCHANAN.

David Buchanan, never seeking to figure prominently in public life, but faithfully performing each day's duty as it has come to him, is now living a retired life on his farm on section 15, Brush Creek township, and such a course is made possible through earnest and indefatigable labors in earlier years. "There is nothing more pleasing nor profitable than the study of biography" said Carlyle, while George Washington said "Agriculture is the most useful as well as the most honorable occupation to which a man gives his energies." Thus in a review of the life history of Mr. Buchanan we not only find food for reflection, but also learn of his connection with farming interests, whereby he has worked his way upward to success, and now, leaving the active work of the farm to his sons, he is enjoying a well merited rest.

A native of Washington county, Pennsylvania, he was born July 24, 1825, his parents being Samuel and Martha (Bines) Buchanan. The father, also a native of Washington county, was born April 2, 1786, and on the 28th of February, 1816, in his native state he married Martha Bines. He came to Ohio in 1831, settling in Perry township, becoming one of the early stock-raisers and most successful farmers in Muskingum county.

Mr. Fickel now has a fine home in Taylorville and another fine residence and he is living retired, being in comfortable financial circumstances. He votes with the republican party, which was the defense of the Union cause at the time of the Civil war and has always been the advocate of progress, reform and improvement. His wife is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and both are highly esteemed by a large circle of warm friends.

DAVID BUCHANAN.

David Buchanan, never seeking to figure prominently in public life, but faithfully performing each day's duty as it has come to him, is now living a retired life on his farm on section 15, Brush Creek township, and such a course is made possible through earnest and indefatigable labors in earlier years. "There is nothing more pleasing nor profitable than the study of biography" said Carlyle, while George Washington said "Agriculture is the most useful as well as the most honorable occupation to which a man gives his energies." Thus in a review of the life history of Mr. Buchanan we not only find food for reflection, but also learn of his connection with farming interests, whereby he has worked his way upward to success, and now, leaving the active work of the farm to his sons, he is enjoying a well merited rest.

A native of Washington county, Pennsylvania, he was born July 24, 1825, his parents being Samuel and Martha (Bines) Buchanan. The father, also a native of Washington county, was born April 2, 1786, and on the 28th of February, 1816, in his native state he married Martha Bines. He came to Ohio in 1831, settling in Perry township, becoming one of the early stock-raisers and most successful farmers in Muskingum county.

Unto Mr. and Mrs. Fickel was born a daughter, Minnie, whose birth occurred June 15, 18—, and is now the wife of Emil Waterman, a resident of Portland, Oregon. They have also reared an adopted son and for seven years the granddaughter has lived with them. The former, Edgar Lenz, is a nephew of Mr. Fickel, and the granddaughter is Mamie Wasler.

David Buchanan, never seeking to figure conspicuously in public life, but faithfully performing each day's duty as it has come to him, is now living a retired life on his farm on section 13, Brush Creek township, and such a course is made possible through earnest and indefatigable labor in earlier years. "There is nothing more pleasing nor profitable than the study of biography," said Carlyle, while George Washington said, "Agriculture is the most useful as well as the most honorable occupation to which a man gives his attention." Thus in a review of the life history of Mr. Buchanan we not only find food for reflection, but also learn of his connection with farming interests, whereby he has moved on and forward to success, and now, leaving the active work of the farm to his sons, he is enjoying a well merited rest.

A native of Washington county, Pennsylvania, he was born July 22, 1825, his parents being Samuel and Martha (Kines) Buchanan. The father, also a native of Washington county, was born April 2, 1786, and on the 28th of February, 1816, in his native state he married Martha Kines. SILAS W. FICKEL.

Silas W. Fickel, now living retired in a pleasant home in Taylorsville, Ohio, was born March 22, 1845, in Madison township, Perry county, Ohio, and is a son of George and Harriet (Herrington) Fickel. The father was likewise a native of Perry county, while the mother's birth occurred in Licking county, Ohio. The paternal grandfather, Joseph Fickel, came from Pennsylvania to the Buckeye state, settling in Perry county when young. He was of Dutch lineage, while his wife was of Scotch descent. Becoming the owner of a tract of land of one hundred and sixty acres, he devoted his remaining days to its cultivation and improvement. George Fickel also became a farmer and continuously engaged in the tilling of the soil until February 1, 1864, when he joined the army, enlisting as a member of Company D, Seventy-eighth Ohio Volunteer Infantry. He was afterward transferred to the Twenty-second Veteran Reserve Corps on the 25th of September, 1864, and served until the close of the war, being mustered out at Columbus, Ohio, July 14, 1865. Since that time he has largely lived retired and now makes his home at Fultonham at the age of eighty years. His wife died March 25, 1888, at the age of seventy-seven years. In his family were nine children, of whom six are now living.

Silas W. Fickel pursued his education in the graded schools of Fultonham and he, too, responded to the country's call for aid when the south attempted to overthrow the Union. He was but seventeen years of age when he enlisted on the 4th of January, 1864, and joined the boys in blue of Company D, Seventy-eighth Ohio Infantry. He participated in the battle of Peach Tree Creek and a number of skirmishes and was wounded on the 26th of August, 1864, while in action near Atlanta, Georgia. He was then under the knee and had his leg amputated, but amputation was again necessary and the member was cut off about two and a half inches from the hip. He was in the hospital at Marietta, Georgia, at Atlanta, Chattanooga and Nashville, also at Louisville, Kentucky, and Madison, Indiana, and maintained and enjoyed the respect and good will of those with whom he has been associated and he is well known in Muskingum county.

Subject: Census and Marriage Records

Hope everyone's having a wonderful holiday weekend. We're still very short of rain but the temperature has returned to normal levels!

To answer Rowena's question . . I'm in Atlanta and have a branch of the National Archives on the south side of town. I just drove through Pennsylvania twice in July and would have been glad to visit. Maybe the next time.

The last round of letters sent me back to my research papers. Mary and Rowena both touched on some issues I've been pondering.

1. Elizabeth Tatman who married Joseph Fickle: I have a marriage record for Elizabeth Tatman who married Joseph Fickle (I think he's the son of Benjamin and Rebecca Dusenberry) on 30 OCT 1827 in Perry Co.and have been wondering how the two may be related. I found the younger Joseph in 1860 Franklin Co., OH as a widower and now wonder if his wife is the Elizabeth Tatman that Rowena has death information about rather than the elder Elizabeth Tatman.

2. William Fickle born 1793: I also have a marriage record that shows that he married Ann Thompson on 24 MAR 1808 in Fairfield Co., OH. But I can understand Mary's uncertainty because I think there were two William Fickle living in Perry Co., OH in the 1810's. The 1819 tax records list: Benjamin, Joseph, Joseph, William, and William Fickle while 1820 census records show: Benjamin, Jonathan, Joseph D., Joseph G., Rebecca, and William Fickle. I think Rebecca could be the widow of William Fickle who may also be the William Ficle I found in Mason Co., KY. Perhaps he's one of Benjamin's children?

3. Daniel Fickle who married Hester Tipton: 1830 census records show that he had a male and a female (both age 20-29) living with him, but I don't know who they were.
Daniel moved his family to Cass Co., IN in the early to mid 1840's where Hester died 19 OCT 1851. His second wife was Malinda ???

4. Isaac Fickle who married Eliza Tipton: 1830 census records show that he had a male and a female (both age 10-14) living with him who didn't reside with him in 1820. I recently found a marriage record for Isaac Fickle and Mary Tale on 28 NOV 1816 in Fairfield Co., OH and wondered if the two extra children were from a first marriage. He apparently died before 1840 because the household is listed under her name in that census. I can tentatively identify his son born in the late 1830's, but none of his children. Does anyone have any info about him or his family?

Rowena's letter listed an Isaac Fickle died 30 SEP 1858 and married Mary 25 MAR 1825. The only Fickle listed for 1850 Marion Co., OH is a Sarah age 27. I have no idea who he is. Anyone have any ideas?

5. Edward Fickle who married Rebecca: The only census record I can find for any Edward Fickle anywhere is for 1830 Center Co., PA which lists an Edward with a son 10 - 14, and two sons 5 - 9. I have found a marriage record for Edward Frickle and Rebecca Miller on 5 JAN 1832 in Wayne Co., OH. Jonathan's name was also spelled Frickle in his marriage record. I'm not sure if he's “extra” but I also have a marriage record for Edward Fickle and Jane Myers on 11 FEB 1845 in Cass Co., IN.
